By Associated Press to the Journal New York, Nov. 12.-Henry Villard died at his summer residence at Dobbs Ferry today. Villard was born at Heinrich Hilgard, in Rheinish Bavaria, 1835. In 1853, on account of family troubles, he changed his name to Villard. In 1866 he married Annie, only daughter of William Lloyd Garrison.

Several years ago Villard was promi nently connected with the depelopement of the Pacific Northwest, being at different times identified with the Oregon & California Railroad, Oregon Railway & Navigation Co., and the Northern Pacific.

Marcus Daly, of Montana, died here toady. Daly was born in Ireland in 1842. He came to the United States early in life and since 1876 had been a citizen of Montann. At the time of his death he was president of the Amalgamated Copper Company.
